Puts Nick in Her Sewing

By HARRIETTE UNDERHILL

Sister Susie is no longer sewing shirts for soldiers, but she is knitting knickknacks for knapsacks. At least, that is what she was doing at Belmont during them sometimes.

Every other woman carries a fancy workbag, and gold knitting boxes have taken the place of the old and well known vanity boxes. All sorts of useful and ornamental appendages seem to be in the process of construction. We heard one ardent young knitter declare that what she was making was going to be a sweater, but we do hope that the war is not going to last long enough to have her finish it.

We saw one man holding a skein of yarn. If we were he, conscription would have been necessary, but he may have been doing his bit, and one must have been doing his bit, and one must admit that it required courage. Or perhaps he was married; oftimes the marital law is quite as exacting as the Two surprises featured the play vesterday in the invitation patriotic lawn tennis singles on the turf courts of the Country Club of Westchester. Elliott Binzen, national indoor junior Which has nothing to do with the fact that George Odom had three winners yesterday and almost four. The first was Corydon, in the first race on the card, which was for two-year-olds. W. Travers immediately purchased the gelding, and Odom seemed pleased, although $2,000 didn't seem like much of a price to us.

Next came Milkman, the likely chestnut colt, which John Madden bred. They do say you have to get up early to beat the Milkman, and it proved to be true in this case.

sweet to his trainer to see him win in such a masterful way.

Ed Roche broke the spell by finishing second to Precise, which is only as good as winning to the fellow who plays him for place.

"Yes, sir," said Odom, with enthusiasm. "It certainly did my heart good to-day to watch the fruit of my labors. But having Precise beat me seems somehow like the rankest ingratitude. You know she is the daughter of my old friend Waterboy, who carried me to victory so often. I loved that horse, and I thought he returned my affection; but one never can tell."

The Finn Is Top Weight For Brooklyn Handicap

Carrying top weight in stylish handi-caps is the fad with H. C. Hallenbeck's The Finn. He has been assigned to the post of honor in the Brooklyn Handi-cap, which will feature the opening of the Queens County Jockey Club's course at Aqueduct on Monday, June 25. Pennant is ranked second to The Finn, while Boots, winner of the Sub-urban Handicap, is handicapped at 127 nounds.

Harry W. King, of Audit F division, gave two impressive exhibitions in winning a pair of events at the annual field day games of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Athletic Association which were held at Celtic Park yesterday afternoon. He won the running broad jump with a leap of 21 feet 5 inches and captured the running high jump with 5 feet 6 inches.

William F. Bartels, of the architect division, also was a double winner. Bartels's best effort was with the eight pound shot, which he put 42 feet 6 inches. He also took the 100-yard dash for seniors in the good time of 11 sections.

Cambridge, Mass., June 15.—Harvard's fighting men of rowing propensities who stop in England on their way to or from the front and seek to pull an oar by way of recreation will be made honorable members of the famous Thames Rowing Club, of Putney, England. This information was made known in a communication from I. B. Grove, secretary, addressed to President Lowell of Harvard, and a like invitation is believed to have been sent to Yale and other American colleges. The invitation follows: which was well thought of, ran a disappointing race.

Almost as thrilling was the finist of the third race, for three-year olds and upward. Fizer was the tip of the race, and he came home after a thrilling finish with Viewpoint. The latter led for seven furlongs, but in the final drive Buxton outrode Lyke, and got his mount up just in time to win. Piræus and Sea Wave had a good view of the race, but it is doubtful if they were at all interested.

William Brennan, assistant trainer of August Belmont's horses, said yesterday that Stromboli has lost his lameness, which developed after running in the Toboggan Handicap, and recurred after the Suburban. It may be that the good chestnut will race in the Excelsion, that will feature the reopening of the Jamaica course on Monday.
